THE GLENBURN FARMERS' CLUB

The annual Cattle Show and Fair of the Glenburn Farmer's Club, was held at the Town House in Glenburn on Wednesday Oct 11, 1876

The weather was pleasant, the attendance large, and the display of animals, fruits, vegetables, grain, roots, and farming implements so much greater than had been anticipated, that it was a surprise to those who were most sanguine of its success, and the society felt complimented by the attendance of many prominent agriculturalists from adjoining towns, prominent among whom we wish to speak of Rufus Prince Esq, of Bangor, who graced our tables with a beautiful display of vegetables, all of which were fine many of them quite rare

The various committees, to whom the duties were assigned, made their awards as follows

THE "BULL-DOZING" DEMONSTRATIONS

In keeping with the whole character of the Tilden campaign, which gave special prominence to Morrissey's gambling-room bulletins and Hewitt's blustering manifestoes the "great organizer" in New York attempted to get up a ferocious demonstration throughout the country on Monday last for the purpose of "bull-dozing" public sentiment. Naturally it was not a success, and as a national effort it can only be described as a fizzle. The people are not inclined to be scared by a noise, and the threat of this demonstration provoked such ridicule that it was abandoned except in a few places where expectant beneficiaries of Tilden insisted upon rallying the faithful. The telegraph informs us that meetings were held in Washington, Indianapolis, Columbus, O., Richmond, Va., and Montpelier, Vt. The Vermont gathering was [illegible] tame demonstration and the verbose resolutions of a harmless character. The Indiana and Ohio patriots worked up rather more steam and ventilated some incendiary language quite suggestive of the treasonable mutterings of the Golden Circle twelve or thirteen years ago. Among their propositions was one for holding a National Democratic Convention at Washington February 12, for the purpose of intimidating Congress at the counting of the votes and the men who support this raiding project are the same who have felt pained at the quartering of a few companies of soldiers in Washington. At the meeting of the unterrified held at the National Capital Monday the Congressional bottle-shiters, such as the "Bounding Bandit," the impressive Tarbox and Watterson of the blood and bourbon rhetoric, had full swing, and the country was threatened with terrible things unless Tilden is given the White House. Watterson was especially sanguinary and pot-valiant, declaring that 100,000 men would be in Washington on the 14th of February "to see that there is a fair count." Watterson is one of those who think the President should be impeached for stationing four or five hundred United States soldiers in the Capital which [illegible] threatens with such a formidable invasion. The Virginians applied their energies to a declaration of the manner in which the votes should be counted for [illegible] of the United States, according to the views of the Democracy of Richmond which a few years ago was the official residence of the so-called President of the Confederate States. Either the historical information or the candor of these Virginians seems to be woefully deficient. [illegible] resolving among [illegible]

That the power to count the votes has never yet been claimed by any previous President of the Senate. On the contrary the framers of the Constitution accompanied it with a recommendation in accordance with which the first President of the Senate John Langdon, was chosen for the sole purpose of [illegible] opening and counting the votes. For President and Mr Langdon's certificate of his performance of this [illegible] among the records of the Senate. [illegible] further appears that the first Vice President of the United States, John Adams, acting as President of the Senate, [illegible] counted the votes of the [illegible] and another instance which Virginians will certainly hold in remembrance was the action of that celebrated Virginian Thomas Jefferson, the second Vice President of the United States, who [illegible] the certificate that we print where [illegible] opened all the certificates and counted all the votes of the Electors for President in February, 1801 [illegible] the resolutions of the [illegible] have made a poor show [illegible] constitutional authorities or [illegible] of public opinion. The [illegible] now much more interested in [illegible] the history of the Oregon case which [illegible] involved Mr Tilden's [illegible] confidential Secretary, than in his recent attempts at diversion. It is a very obvious fact that Tilden stock has been rapidly declining of late, and the column of the exposure of the Cronin bargain and sale is not to be counteracted by the blood and thunder resolutions of delegates or the actual revolution of the White League "Tildenites" of Louisiana. The United States Government is not a railway corporation and the people do not propose to be seared into handing it over to Mr Tilden's "wreckers."

MAINE'S FIGURES

[From the New York Tribune.]

The official result for Governor in Maine declared by a unanimous vote of the Legislature: Connor 75,867, Talbot 60,723, scattering 534, Connor's majority over Talbot 15,144. In September, the day after the election, Mr Blaine telegraphed Hayes and also the Tribune that the Republican majority would probably reach and possibly exceed 14,000, and at once the whole Democratic press howled out that the returns were "cooked," and the figures arranged by Mr Blaine in order to affect other States. The absolute truth is sometimes a trifle slow, but it is sure in time to overtake even the Democratic or when he resorts to wholesale lying. Mr Blaine has sent despatches during the Maine elections for nearly a score of years past and has in no instance incorrectly stated the result, or even once, in the excitement of victory, overrated it.

THE OREGON TELEGRAMS.

Senator Dawes, of Massachusetts, in a debate on Monday on forcing a telegraph manager in Oregon to disclose certain telegrams withheld by him, took the ground that he was bound to give them up, a committee of the Senate having decided that they contain information which is necessary for an investigation now going on; but the idea of a general divulging of what has passed over the wires is a thing, said Mr Dawes, "which I would not by the vote I give to-day, even by implication, sanction. What the newspapers have informed us has transpired of late—a telegraph company selling their messages that have been received in confidence by them from their customers to the paper makers, and they being distributed among favorite newspapers is an outrage that Congress should punish if it has the power. But the telegraph being no more than the mail, no more than any individual who has possession of a written communication which contains evidence bearing on the guilt or innocence of an accused person, it is the duty of any person having such evidence to disclose it. Beyond that I do not desire the vote which I shall give to be understood as sanctioning the practice which has been instituted, and which has prevailed, as much in one party as in the other, of invading the secrets of the private business and confidential communications of the whole community. That practice should cease if there is any power in Congress to prohibit it." The Senate agreed with Mr. Dawes, and voted a large majority that the Oregon [illegible] produced, and the man [illegible] will not be a difficult principal is about the confidential friends matter of remitted money to Oregon with directions to secure the one needed vote there.

GROVER AND HIS ASSOCIATES

[From the N. Y. Evening Post.]

Governor Grover, who was examined by the Senate Committee, Friday, helped the Oregon case if not his own. His testimony tends to clear up the Cronin matter and to show not only that the Democratic Electoral vote ought not to be counted, but that the scheme was a scandalous one, contrived outside of the State and procured to be carried out by other than Oregon influence, if not by other than Oregon money. So far as Grover's testimony was an argument in defence of his and Cronin's proceedings, it does not need much attention. The State law requires the Governor to certify to the election of the person having the highest number of votes. Grover says that he interpreted this to mean "the highest number of legal votes." He therefore made himself a judge in the matter. He assumed the judicial functions for exercising which, under an explicit State law, the Louisiana Returning Board has been roundly rated. While recognizing the State law and construing it for one purpose, he disregarded it for another purpose. He says that the State law requires the Secretary of State to issue certificates to Electors, while the law of the United States "makes it the duty of the Governor" to issue them, and that he obeyed the Federal instead of the local law. Grover does not quote the United States statute correctly. It provides that the Governor but "the Executive authority of each State shall cause" lists of the names of Electors "to be made and certified." It is for the State to say what is its Executive authority, whether generally or for a particular purpose, and Oregon has said that her Secretary of State shall be such authority for this purpose.

The most interesting part of Grover's testimony is that in which he says that he was advised in the matter by eminent Democrats who are not citizens of Oregon—by Mr Gwin, by Mr Hewitt and by Mr Marble. The opportunity for these eminent Democrats to "rise to explain" is so inviting, not to say urgent, that they can scarcely fail to improve it even if they are not summoned by the Senate committee. Grover tells us less about Mr Patrick—not hitherto a very eminent Democrat—than we should like to know. Mr Patrick is a desirable witness. Perhaps he can tell us about the money for expenses and the "anything you want" which was promised Cronin.

THE SOUTH CAROLINA TAX-PAYERS

[From the New York Times.]

It turns out that the so-called "tax-payers" of South Carolina who met in Charleston, and highly resolved not to pay any taxes while Chamberlain is Governor, are not tax-payers at all. Several of these noisy protestants never pay any taxes whatever. One pays less than $1 50 per annum, and some of them pay in bills of a moribund bank worth ten cents on a dollar. The men who really pay taxes had nothing to do with the high-sounding manifesto of the politicians. It is always so. The men who cry for war are the very first to run away. On the other hand, the substantial citizens of South Carolina have met and have very simply expressed their determination to support the regular Government of the State. If it is any comfort to Mr. Hampton to have the sympathy of a portion of the citizens, he is assured that he has with him several people who never pay taxes to anybody.

A JEFFERSONIAN PRECEDENT

The "Jefferson Democrats" who are declaiming so vigorously against the doctrine that the President of the Senate is empowered to count the Electoral vote will find the following official statement of Thomas Jefferson's "precedent" of some interest.

Be it known, That the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America, being convened at the City of Washington on the second Wednesday of February, A. D. 1801, the underwritten Vice-President of the United States and President of the Senate, did, in the presence of the said Senate and House of Representatives, open all the certificates and count all the votes of the Electors for President, whereupon it appeared that Thomas Jefferson of Virginia, and Aaron Burr, of New York, had a majority of the votes of the Electors, and an equal number of votes, in consequence of which the House of Representatives proceeded to a choice of a President, and have this day notified to the Senate that THOMAS JEFFERSON has been duly chosen President, by all of which it appears that AARON BURR, Esq. of New York, is duly elected, agreeably to the Constitution, Vice-President of the United States of America.

In witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and seal this 18th day of February, 1801.

THOMAS JEFFERSON

POLITICAL AND PERSONAL.

Senator Sherman has been forced by assertions of the Democratic press to publish a card declaring that he and his Republican associates who went to New Orleans paid all of their expenses without hope of reimbursement.

A few days ago several indiscreet Democratic editors remarked: "Morton is laboring hard to find something rotten in Oregon." He seems to have been successful in finding two distinct deposits of rottenness, one in Oregon and one in Liberty street, connected with each other by a telegraph wire.—Tribune.

It is worth noting that the Republicans of this day hold the same views on the subject of the power of Congress over the counting of the Electoral vote as the Jeffersonian Republicans of 1800-1, while the Democrats to-day are holding the positions taken and enforced by the most latitudinarian constructionists and most centralizing politicians of the same period.—Boston Journal.

Mr. Blaine is unanimously renominated with such a demonstration of good will as no son of Maine has ever received before. Carry the news to Mulligan.—N. Y. Tribune.

Maine gave a new proof of enthusiastic devotion to her favorite son, Hon. James G. Blaine, by the unanimous action of her Republican State Senators and Legislators in resolving to elect him United States Senator for the remainder of the term he is now serving and the full six years' term which succeeds it. Similar unanimity was never before displayed in that Commonwealth in connection with the first election of any of his distinguished predecessors, and it has very rarely, if ever, been manifested in other States.—Philadelphia Press.

An Ashtabula special says a bunch of keys are recognized by Mr. McDevitt, of Boston, as having belonged to Wm. F. Wilson of that city, who perished on the train. The railroad company is to erect a monument over the unrecognized dead.

State Temperance Convention.

TO THE PEOPLE OF MAINE,

As the time approaches for our Annual Temperance Gathering, in reviewing the past we see abundant reason to "thank God and take courage."

The success of the various Temperance Organizations, both male and female, has been truly wonderful. The principle of total abstinence as we may well prohibition, was never more strongly intrenched in the hearts of the people than to-day. This should encourage us to work on until victory crowns our efforts.

Therefore, the men, women and children of Maine, of all temperance organizations, and of no temperance associations, of all religious denominations and political parties, total abstinence, prohibitionists, and those who have doubts with reference to prohibition, are invited to meet in Mass Convention at Granite Hall, in Augusta, on Tuesday, at 2 o'clock P. M., Jan. 23, 1877. Let us come together to pray, consult and plan for the future.

THE BENNETT-MAY DUEL.

"High Honor" Satisfied!

Particulars of the Bennett-May Duel

PHILADELPHIA, Jan 9 The meeting between Bennett and May took place one mile from Merrydell, Maryland, at one o'clock yesterday The party carried blankets, overcoats, two cases of pistols and surgical instruments. They represented themselves as railroad officials, May saying that he was a Director of the Penn Railroad and Bennett giving his name as Daniel Drew, of New York, and stating that his mission was to purchase the Maryland and Delaware Railroad—They had with them also maps of the Peninsula, and to several parties reported themselves as hunters on a gunning expedition Such was the privacy of the whole affair that these statements were believed in the neighborhood

Mr Bennett's face showed a scar which was much swollen probably by the cold The scene of the meeting was a short distance from the line of the Maryland and Delaware railroad Three shots were fired without injury to either, after which the entire party left the ground. The parties returned to Marydell separately The Bennett party secured conveyance to Clayton, Bennett himself appearing nervous and depressed, and subsequently took a special train for Wilmington and Philadelphia The May party went to Slaughter's station thence to Dover and from there to Philadelphia in this morning's train

A I Tilghman was with May, but the names of the others present at the duel have not yet been ascertained The party paid liberally for all services rendered them and also for silence It is believed that both men are satisfied and that there will be no further hostile meeting Bennett and his friends will leave for New York at midnight

THE LATEST REPORTS AND RUMORS.

Assembling of the White League.

NEW ORLEANS, Jan. 9—9 A M At this hour the members of the White League which has been mustered in by the Nicholls Government as militia, are assembling with arms at Lafayette square with the avowed purpose of maintaining the Superior Court abolished by the Kellogg Government.

Preparing for Violence in the Interest of Nicholls

NEW ORLEANS, Jan 9—9 30 A M The streets are filled with armed men hurrying to Lafayette Square where orderlies are dashing about on horseback, presenting all the phases of an army on the eve of battle Armed men are reporting to the Sheriff, whose purpose it is stated is to take possession of the Supreme Court room now in charge of the metropolitan police and install Nicholls newly appointed Judge of the Supreme Court It is more than possible that an attempt will be made to capture the police stations An advertisement appears this morning ordering the members of the Washington artillery to assemble at their armory at 10 o'clock

A Riot Surpassing those of '67 and '74 in Violence Probable

10 30 A M —Armed men are still hurrying through the streets to Lafayette Square, where they report to the Sheriff who it is said will move them to the Supreme Court building facing Jackson Square and endeavor to take possession of it Chief Justice Ludding is there on the bench and Capt Gray, of the Metropolitan Police, with a strong force in possession of the building under orders of the Chief Justice

It is stated the Chief Justice will remove the present Sheriff, if he attempts to take the building by force and appoint another Sheriff

Gov Packard is at the State House cool and calm He has telegraphed President Grant for assistance The white men under arms disavow any intention of provoking a collision A drunken man, or an accidental shot may bring on a riot surpassing those of 67 or 74 Gov Nicholls is at St Patrick's Hall

Movements Begin

11 A M Armed men are moving in different directions from Lafayette square About 500 are passing down St Charles street and are supposed to be moving for the Supreme Court, and others are moving south and west

Intense and Increasing Excitement

11 45 A M A demand was made for the third precinct station house in the Supreme Court building and refused About ten thousand persons are assembled and the excitement is intense Gov Packard reports the metropolitan wire cut and he has established communication with United States Marshal Pitkin at the Custom House by means of the United States signal corps The Metropolitans at the State House are being armed with Springfield rifles Shops in the French quarter are all closed United States troops are at the Orleans hotel, two blocks away, watching the crowd at the square but are not under arms The excitement increases with every new movement

Later—At 11 50 o clock Nicholls' militia took possession of the Supreme Court building and installed their Judges All the police stations are in possession of Nicholls' Government Not a gun has been fired

Nicholls White Leaguers Take Possession of Court-rooms and Police Stations

Noon The Nicholls authorities have taken possession of all the police stations and court-rooms in the Parish of Orleans The Packard authorities hold only the State House No bloodshed

'Legal State Militia'

1 20 P M The Picayune extra, issued at noon says of the assembling armed bodies This morning few were aware that a legal State militia had been organized and armed for the execution of the orders of the Governor, and that these men in the street were there in obedience to their call as State militia

Nicholls 'Militia Collected in Force—Report that They will Demand the Surrender of the State House.

The Nicholls government are in possession of everything except the State House, but as yet no effort has been made to take possession of that building, around which thousands of unarmed citizens are congregated, blocking up the street for squares and rendering it impossible to reach it A company of about three thousand of Nicholls militia are under arms on the levee at the foot of Decatur street and it is reported that a demand for the surrender of the State House will be made this afternoon and as the Republicans are in a hopeless minority, it is hardly probable that armed resistance will be made The force under Gov Packard there will not exceed 300 The commander of the United States sloop Ossipee has established a signal station in the Custom House in order to communicate with the officials there The Ossipee and monitor Canonicus are lying off the foot of Paydras street United States Marshal Pitkins is in constant communication with Washington, giving every phase of the situation and Chief Justice Luding this morning issued an order removing civil Sheriff Handy and appointed Alfred Boweyes to that position Handy was acting under orders of Nicholls and hence this action Up to this hour not a shot has been fired or an accident reported Great crowds are assembled on Canal, Camp and other principal streets The Republicans report two regiments from Mississippi and one from Alabama with Ogden

The Situation Unchanged.

2.15 P M There is no important change in the situation Ogden's militia are massed within the square of the State House and have been reinforced by a company of colored militia, numbering 100 Gov Packard says that he will resist any attack made upon the State House The signal corps on top of the State House are constantly signalling the Custom House Nicholls' Judges of the Supreme Court after spreading their commissions on record and appointing Alfred Roman, Clerk, adjourned the Court till Wednesday

2 40 P M. The Democratic leaders now assert that they have no intention of attacking the State House The following has just been issued Nicholls Issues a "Proclamation.

EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT, New Orleans, Jan 9

To the People of Louisiana

I should be most profoundly surprised and disappointed should any citizen of Louisiana at this moment so far forget himself as to be guilty of any excess whatever. There is danger in collecting together in large bodies I urge you, therefore, to return at once peacefully to your homes The greater the wrongs to which you have been subjected, the greater to your credit should you recognize and feel collect your own simple and plain duty as citizens. Let no one be injured, however obnoxious he may be. Let the people of the whole country see that we are law abiding, just and moderate.

FRANCIS T. NICHOLLS.
Governor of the State of Louisiana.

Shots Fired—Nicholls and his Henchmen Trying to Disperse the Rioters.

3.10 P. M. About half-past two o'clock some one in the crowd in St. Louis street fired two shots with a pistol into the Auditor's office in the lower portion of the State House, and three shots were returned from within, which caused great excitement. No one was hurt, however. Soon after Mayor Austin drove up in a carriage and read Gov. Nicholls' proclamation to the crowd. A part of the crowd dispersed, but the larger portion remained. Gov. Nicholls and Chief of Police Boylan are now endeavoring to disperse the crowd.

Nicholls Reviews His White League.

NEW ORLEANS, Jan 9 About six o'clock to night Nicholls' militia, about five thousand strong, had a review on St Charles street, opposite Lafayette Square. As they marched through the streets they were cheered by the men and the ladies who thronged the galleries waved their handkerchiefs They were principally armed with Springfield rifles with bayonets and cartridge boxes, though some were armed with carbines, shot guns and old muskets and marched in a manner that showed they were familiar with the school of the company.

The League Patrolling the City.

After the review the companies were detailed for duty and marched off to different points. Some are patrolling the city to-night, but most of them were disbanded for the night All ages from 16 to 60 years are represented in this militia. As they passed the Custom House this morning on their march to Jackson Square the windows on Old Levee street were filled with United States soldiers The militia brought their guns to carry arms and gave three cheers which were responded to by the soldiers

Nicholls' Police Refuse Persons Admittance to the State House,

At 9 o'clock to-night the agent of the Associated Press attempted to enter the State House to interview Gov Packard, but was halted by the Nicholls police and refused admission Governor Packard and the Legislature are in the State House, but the new police have refused to allow provisio is to be carried inside and Gov Packard and the Legislature are in a state of siege The Republican Legislature had no quorum in either board to-day as some of the members were outside and asserted that they were afraid to risk their lives inside; consequently no action was taken toward the election of a United States Senator

The Democratic Plan

All kinds of sensational rumors are afloat to-night, notably one that the State House is to be attacked On this subject prominent Democrats stated the plan of the Democrats was to have the Supreme Court enjoin Packard from usurping the functions of Governor, and in the event of his refusing to have him arrested for contempt

Nothing was done by the House Committee to-day beyond the examination of Colonel Zacharie in regard to the action of the Returning Board At 10 o clock to night all is quiet The Nicholls Government have a strong police force on duty throughout the city

The Cabinet Session

WASHINGTON, Jan 9 The Cabinet session to day continued nearly three hours There was much conversation about political affairs generally but especially with regard to the condition of those in New Orleans as various telegrams had been received from that city expressive of fears of violations of the public peace owing to two State organizations and the consequent excitement over the acts of the respective parties

Instructions to General Auger

The following despatch was sent to Gen Auger immediately after the adjournment of the Cabinet by the direction of the President and which indicates the purpose of the Government as expressed by the President in recent interviews

EXECUTIVE MANSION, Washington Jan 9

SCHENCK'S PULMONIC SYRUP SEAWEED TONIC AND MANDRAKE PILLS —These deservedly celebrated and popular medicines have effected a revolution in the healing art and proved the fallacy of several maxims which have for many years obstructed the progress of medical science The false supposition that 'Consumption is incurable' deterred physicians from attempting to find remedies for that disease and patients afflicted with it reconciled themselves to death without making an effort to escape from a doom which they supposed to be unavoidable It is now proved however that Consumption can be cured and that it has been cured in a very great number of cases (some of them apparently desperate ones) by Schenck's Pulmonic Syrup alone and in other cases by the same medicine in connection with Schenck's Sea Weed Tonic and Mandrake Pills, one or both, according to the requirements of the case

Dr Schenck himself, who enjoyed uninterrupted good health for more than forty years was supposed at one time to be at the very gate of death, his physicians having pronounced his case hopeless and abandoned him to his fate He was cured by the aforesaid medicines, and since his recovery many thousands similarly affected have used Dr Schenck's preparations with the same remarkable success

Full directions accompany each making it not absolutely necessary to personally see Dr Schenck unless patients wish their lungs examined and for this purpose he is professionally at his principal office Corner Sixth and Arch Sts Philadelphia, every Monday where all letters for advice must be addressed Schenck's medicines are sold by all druggists eod1m jan1

SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE For CATARRH,

IS UNIVERSALLY RECOMMENDED

We have just received a communication from nearly every druggist in New England ... West and the testimony is universally in favor of SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE FOR CATARRH. We believe there never was a remedy so popular wherever known and certainly we feel there never was one more deserving of praise. ...

While many ... testimony in favor of the Radical Cure ... Hence in the following case we are unable to give the name but are permitted to refer those who may call upon us personally to him and to state the severity and condition of the case before and after using the Radical Cure, and also that the gentleman occupies a responsible office in one of our State institutions We quote —

I would not for the world permit my name to be used although I have no doubt it would be of benefit to many now suffering as I have suffered but I give you a brief statement of my case —

For two years I have taken bromide of potash and bromide of ammonia every day I never passed a single night without getting up once or twice to free my throat from the matter that had dropped into it during sleep and finally I coughed during all this time Since taking the RADICAL CURE I have taken no potassa or ammonia, have slept soundly every night without uneasiness or distress not a particle of matter has dropped into my throat during sleep and every symptom of cough has left me

A wonderful result truly all will say ... The gentleman has had eighteen bottles It must satisfy the sceptical that there is great merit in the Radical Cure Its mode of preparation is new and original Ignoring the old practices and remedies Dr Sanford selected a new field and has demonstrated his method to be the only proper and never failing treatment

CIRCULAR SAWS!

Made Without Hammering.

The Simonds saws are straightened by means of ... process and without hammering, and are warranted superior to hammered saws for the following reasons:

The success of the process requiring a uniform heat, insures a perfectly uniform temper and they file and set in a more satisfactory manner.

Being free from uneven strain or buckle, they ... run steadier ...

The steel is left in a natural condition by this process, the saws retain their original shape, or ... in size, thus avoiding the necessity and expense of re-hammering.

... of a higher quality of steel than it is practical to use by the old method, they hold an edge ...

... all saws can be run at any rate ... speed with equally good results,—saws ... diameter having been tested from 400 ... turns a minute with perfect satisfaction,—while hammered saws must be hammered differently for different speeds.

The Simonds saws received at the Centennial, a Medal, Diploma, and the following report of the Board of Judges:

"Circular Saws of beautiful finish and form, and ... in the method of manufacture."

Depend upon it, mothers, it will give rest to yourselves, and

Relief and Health to your Infants.

We have put up and sold this article for years, and CAN SAY IN CONFIDENCE AND TRUTH of it what we have never been able to say of any other medicine—NEVER HAS IT FAILED IN A SINGLE INSTANCE TO EFFECT A CURE, when timely used. Never did we know an instance of dissatisfaction by any one who used it. On the contrary, all are delighted with its operations, and speak in terms of highest commendation of its magical effects and medical virtues. We speak in this matter "WHAT WE DO KNOW," after years of experience, AND PLEDGE OUR REPUTATION FOR THE FULFILLMENT OF WHAT WE HERE DECLARE. In almost every instance where the infant is suffering from pain and exhaustion, relief will be found in fifteen or twenty minutes after the syrup is administered.

This valuable preparation has been used with NEVER FAILING SUCCESS in

Thousands of Cases.

We believe it the BEST AND SUREST REMEDY IN THE WORLD in all cases of DYSENTERY AND DIARRHOEA IN CHILDREN, whether it arises from teething or from any other cause. We would say to every mother who has a child suffering from any of the foregoing complaints—DO NOT LET YOUR PREJUDICES, NOR THE PREJUDICES OF OTHERS, stand between you and your suffering child and the relief that will be SURE—yes, ABSOLUTELY SURE—to follow the use of this medicine, if timely used. LETTER CARRIERS

All letters are delivered free by carriers when addressed to street and number. People should inform their correspondents of above and have their letters addressed accordingly.

Persons having their address at the General Delivery can also have their letters sent, but it is much more convenient to have the street and number on, and they will be delivered earlier than if the same is put on at the office. Carriers make two deliveries daily, the first trip supplying the extremities of their routes.

Collections are made morning and evening in season for important mails—the down town boxes fifteen and the up town boxes thirty minutes before closing mails at the office.

Both days the Carrier's Window will be open for the delivery of letters from 8½ to 9½ A. M., and from 5½ to 7½ P. M. Sundays from 8½ to 9½ A. M.

All irregularities in the Carriers department should be reported to the office.

ENVELOPES

No additional charge will be made for printing the name and request to return across the left hand upper corner of the envelopes furnished by the Post Office Department (samples of which may be seen at the Cashier's window,) when ordered in lots of not less than 500.

A request for the return of a letter to the writer if unclaimed within thirty days or less written or printed with the writer's name, post office and State across the left end of the envelope, on the face side, will be complied with.

☞ The public are earnestly recommended to procure Stamped Envelopes with printed return request, as the expense is less and letters thus endorsed, if not delivered to the person addressed, are returned to the writer free of charge.

First class envelopes of all sizes furnished at $3 80 per thousand.

This spacious and popular Hotel has been thoroughly renovated by the present proprietor. Several of the choice rooms have been refurnished, and all the appointments of the house are now first class. Holly Water has been introduced and the establishment is heated by steam. These improvements make the house thoroughly comfortable, convenient and pleasant.

The location of the FRANKLIN HOUSE is one of the most agreeable, healthy and central in the city. It is within one minute's walk of the Post Office, Custom House and Norumbega Hall, and convenient to all the business parts of the city.

MR. ROYAL QUIMBY, the old and popular clerk of the house will continue to discharge the duties of that position.

With these advantages the proprietor flatters himself that he will be enabled fully to satisfy the expectations of the old patrons of the house and make it a desirable resort for the travelling public. The table will be made second to that of no other hotel in Maine.
